Note: If the space provided under any article or item on this form is insufficient, additions shall be set forth on one side only of separate 8 1/2 x 11 sheets of paper with a left margin of at least 1 inch. Additions to more than one article may be made on a single sheet so long as each article requiring each addition is clearly indicated.

ARTICLE III

A corporation may have one or more classes of members. If it does, the designation of such classes, the manner of election or appointments, the duration of membership and the qualification and rights, including voting rights, of the members of each class, may be set forth in the by-laws of the corporation or may be set forth below:

The Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors which shall consist of no less than three (3) persons, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors of The Community of Jesus, Inc. from the membership of The Community of Jesus, Inc., as the same may be constituted from time to time. All directors shall be considered voting members for purposes of Massachusetts law. The Board of Directors shall be elected to staggered three-year terms. Further provisions for the membership of the Corporation, if any, shall be as set forth in the By-Laws of the Corporation, pursuant to Section 3 of Chapter 180 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ARTICLE IV

Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or of its directors or members, or of any class of members, are as follows:*

1. The Corporation shall have all powers permitted to a corporation formed under Chapter 180 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as amended from time to time, including, without limitation, such powers granted under Chapter 156D of said General Laws as may be permitted by said Chapter 180, except that, notwithstanding anything in these Articles or Organization to the contrary, the Corporation shall have no powers, nor shall it be organized or operated for any purpose, that would (i) cause it to fail to qualify as a Supporting Organization of The Community of Jesus, Inc. under Section 509(c)(3) of the Code, or (ii) cause it to fail to qualify for exemption from federal income taxation under Section 501(a)(1) of the Code, or (iii) not be permitted under either Section 509(a)(3) or 501(c)(3) of such Code, or the applicable corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue laws or regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE V

The by-laws of the corporation have been duly adopted and the initial directors, president, treasurer and clerk or other presiding, financial or recording officers, whose names are set out on the following page, have been duly elected.

If there are no provisions, state "None".*

Note: The preceding four (4) articles are considered to be permanent and may only be changed by filing appropriate Articles of Amendment.

2. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office (including publishing or distribution of statements), nor shall the Corporation, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities, or exercise any powers, that are not in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.
3. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, as defined by the Code and Regulations thereunder.
4. Any dissolution of the Corporation shall be in accordance with Code Section 501(c)(3) and Chapter 180 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (or any corresponding provision of any future not-for-profit corporation laws of the Commonwealth), as each may be amended from time to time. Any petition to a court for dissolution of the Corporation shall provide, after paying or making provisions for payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, that the remaining assets be distributed to The Community of Jesus, Inc., if the same shall then be an exempt organization under Code Section 501(c)(3), and if not, then to an organization (or organizations) determined by the Court to be (i) organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes and (ii) qualified as an exempt organization under Code Section 501(c)(3). If the Corporation shall be dissolved other than by petition to a court, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, distribute the assets of the Corporation to The Community of Jesus, Inc., if the same shall then be an exempt organization under Code Section 501(c)(3), and if not, then to such organization (or organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as an exempt organization under Code Section 501(c)(3), as the Board of Directors may determine.
5. Meetings of the members of the Corporation may be held anywhere in the United States, unless otherwise provided in the By-laws of the Corporation.
6. The Board of Directors may make, amend or repeal the By-Laws in whole or in part, except in the event that other action is required by law.

ARTICLE VI

The effective date of organization of the corporation shall be the date approved and filed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. If a later effective date is desired, specify such date which shall not be more than thirty days after the date of filing.
